El Paso Housewives Owe It to Their Families To Buy "MADE IN EL PASO" PRODUCTS

It is up to the home makers, (the wives and mothers) of El Paso, to help the Southwest grow by the purchase of goods made or grown or prepared in the Rio Grande Valley. In helping El Paso they help their husbands, fathers and sons to greater success. Practically all of El Paso has seen the wonderful display of these products this week in the White House, International Book, A. D. Foster Jewelry and Pioneer Plaza display windows. The exhibit of food stuffs, alone, aside from being interesting, is really amazing. It includes coffee, flour, meats, ham, poultry, eggs, bread butter, milk, cheese, lard, macaroni, vermicelli, horseradish, ice creams, candies, canned goods, beer, bottled beverages, flowers, fruits and vegetables of numerous varieties. All of superior quality. After having seen this exhibit all El Pasoans are more familiar with home products. All of the merchants advertising in the Pure Food section can supply you with some of El Paso women can do no greater good for El Paso and for themselves and their families than that of preferring, selecting and purchasing "Made in El Paso" products. "Are you for El Paso or do you just live here?"
